Passionate about films. Excellent comprehension of human behaviours in socio-cultural context, a keen eye for aesthetics and equally at home with production operations.

Managed shoot on locations and delivered quality output against tight budgets and schedules. Creative and solution-oriented mindset to facilitate and deliver results under local and challenging international locations.

I believe in teamwork and have developed an international network of professional to help deliver required creative solutions at location.

My biggest take away from education was to 'learn to learn'. This is my strength, adapting to various situations and cultures.
